VINEYARD

The vineyards of Pernand-Vergelesses are in a very hilly area, stretching over the slopes between Aloxe-Corton and Savigny-lès-Beaune. Pernand-Vergelesses has only six Premier Crus : “Les Fichots”, “En Caradeux”, “Creux de la Net”, “Ile des Vergelesses”, “Les Vergelesses” and “Les Plantes des Champs et Combottes”. This village is located at an altitude of between 250 to 350 m.

TASTING

Beautiful, intense garnet colour. Complex nose with aromas of red and black fruit, as well as fruits in alcohol with stony hints and wild notes. The attack is intense and the density combines the firm tannins, the freshness and the strength of this wine.
